

ENT UK BRITISH SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF ENT MEETING

Thursday 5th December 2024

Venue: The Toynbee Mackenzie ENT Room, Royal Society of Medicine, 1 Wimpole Street, London, W1G 0AE

Time (GMT)	Title	Speaker
12:00 – 12:50	Registration and Lunch
12:50 – 12:55	Welcome	Neil Weir
	Session 1 Chair: Richard Irving
12:55 – 13:10	The Evolution of Tympanic Membrane Pathology Imaging: From Artistic Depictions to Endoscopic Photography.	Dickson Dewantoro and Vedika Dhunoo
13:10 – 13:25	Aristotle’s ‘Problems’: Otolaryngological Observations in Ancient Greece.	Hesham Khalid
13:25 – 13:40	The Bone Conduction Revolution: from Baguette to Bone Conduction Hearing Aid.	Georgia Halliday
13:40 – 13:55	A Century of Change: Modern Breakthroughs in Post-Laryngectomy Voice Rehabilitation.	Mohammed Hasan Al-Khafaji
	Session 2 Chair: Emma Stapleton
13:55 – 14:10	Beethoven; From Symphony to Silence: What made the Great Composer Deaf?	Henry Dewhurst
14:10 – 14:25	Iodine: An historical, economic and political supplement.	Will Connelly
14:25 – 14:40	Tracing the Path of Tears: The History and Evolution of Lacrimal Surgery.	Mohamad Nazmi Nordin
14:40 – 14:55	Goitre: an artist’s muse for centuries.	Aphra-Lily Middleton
14:55 – 15:15	Tea/Coffee and Refreshments Break
	Session 3 Chair: Neil Weir
15:15 – 15:30	A History of Harold Gillies – Wartime Contributions to Rhinology and the Birth of Plastic Surgery.	Tom Wilkins
15:30 – 15:45	The Surgical Virtuoso: Theodor Billroth’s Pioneering Laryngectomy and His Devotion to Music.	Fareed Ahmed
15:45 – 16:00	ENT and Public Health: An Historical Perspective Inspired by the COVID-19 Pandemic.	Judith Osuji
16:00 – 16:15	Professor Messerklinger: The Founding Father of Functional Endoscopic Sinus Surgery (FESS).	Alexandra Nelson
16:15 – 16:35	Business meeting/ AGM
16:35 – 17:00	Award of the JLO Prize for the best ‘Junior’ Presentation	Edward Fisher
17:00	Meeting Close	